Conditions for stabling horses for training at Helgstrand Dressage A/S:

The horse is stabled at Helgstrand Dressage at owner's expense and risk. This applies to all daily activities involving the horse, in pasture, stall and during training.

Helgstrand Dressage is authorised to secure veterinary care/blacksmith, if deemed necessary, and at owner's expense.

When stabling a horse at Helgstrand Dressage, owner accepts that the horse is exempt from consumption.

Bridle including bit must be supplied when bringing the horse for training, as well as a rug suitable for the time of the year. Equipment provided is at owner's risk.

The owner of the horse authorises Helgstrand Dressage to transport the horse to and from shows and other events, when required.

The horse must be vaccinated according to rules in force. Helgstrand Dressage reserves the right to include the horse in the regular vaccination schedule at Helgstrand Dressage.

Invoices are sent out once a month to the e-mail address listed above.
